All information that we hold concerning you as an individual will be held and processed by the Organisation strictly in accordance with the provisions of the Data Protection Act 1998; in providing this information you give permission for the exchange of information between The Regenda Group and other parties in order to verify the information you have provided or where it is a necessary part of the activities we undertake.

Such data will be used by the Organisation to administer our relationship with you as a valued customer. We will not, without your consent, supply your information to any third party except where (1) such transfer is a necessary part of the activities that we undertake, or (2) we are required to do so by law.

We may also collect "sensitive" personal information which includes details around your age, disability, ethnic origin, religion, sexual orientation and medical conditions. We understand that you may not feel comfortable answering some of these questions and you may consider them private but we ask these questions firstly to make sure that we do not discriminate against any of our customers but secondly because we recognise that a person's age, disability, ethnic origin, religion, sexual orientation or medical condition may affect their choice of home, the area they want to live in or the services we provide.

As an individual, you have a right under the Data Protection Act 1998 to obtain your information from us. Should you have any queries concerning this right or any other area of Data Protection, please contact our Governance Department on 0151 7033000 or governance@regenda.org.uk or visit our website at www.regenda.org.uk
